Hey y'all,

I can't believe JFON Homecoming 2026 is already just a few days away! I'm looking forward to being together this Sunday, September 27th from 5pm-8pm. As we finalize details and curl the ribbons on the mums, here's some helpful information for you and for any guests you may be welcoming.

Brodie Homestead, our venue, is located at 5211 Brodie Lane, Austin TX 78745. The venue's parking lot is only accessible if approaching the property from the south on Brodie Ln. One easy way to facilitate this is to loop around to Brodie Lane from Ernest Robles Way.

If the Brodie Homestead parking lot is full, there's more parking in the adjacent shopping center. The folks at BH made a map of the special walking path from overflow parking to the venue building, so you aren't walking along the driveway/road of the shopping center. We'll have signs and folks helping point the way, too:

For anyone wondering what to wear: we say the more casual end of cocktail attire is a good guide, but don't let that stress you out - the point is to enjoy yourself and celebrate!

The first hour is for enjoying the hors d'oeuvres, open bar, interactive installation about JFON's work, and live music featuring Edgar G. Bruno Avitia and friends. We'll get dinner going shortly after 6pm, and move to our amazing program featuring Zizi Ellison and Aliaa Schreiner performing their revised one-act play "Voices of Our Neighbors," co-written with Anthony Ellison.

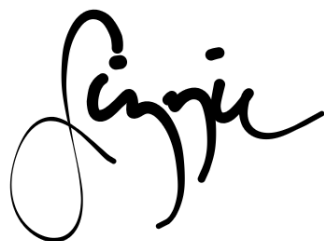

Zizi, a former client of JFON and former board member, claims JFON as one of her homes. You can read more about Zizi, Aliaa, and Anthony here. I genuinely think you are going to leave JFON Homecoming thinking I'm glad I was in that room.

There are still some seats left in the room, too, so feel free to forward this email on to someone you think would enjoy the live theater and getting to know the work of JFON. Tickets and Yearbook entries can be purchased here.

Please don't hesitate to reply to this email with any questions (as well as guest names). I can't wait to see you soon!

Together for justice,
